AZIENDA AGRARIA FOSSACOLLE

Owner: Sergio Marchetti
Wine Maker: Sergio Marchetti
Region: Tuscany

Macchetti Sergio, owner of Fossacolle Winery, comes from an old family from the XVIII century. His descendants lived and worked on the land of a noble family. In the beginning of the 80s, the owner of the land sold the part where the Marchetti family lived, but he donated to them a new land called "PODERE FOSSACOLLE".

1984 was the start of new venture; Azienda Fossacolle was born, and so with it, the first Sangiovese vines. Some years later, the vineyards were registered as Brunello di Montalcino, and ever since then this upcoming estate has produced in Tavernelle wines of great depth, important structure. The use of wood is well controlled and fruitiness and spices emerge beautifully in a Brunello that is meant to become a real collectible.
