

LA GANGHIJA

BARBARESCO DOCG

Located 5 kilometers south of Barbaresco, with vineyards at the highest elevations, Treiso wines tend to be the lightest in body and are principally known for their finesse.

La Ganghija Barbaresco vineyards are located in some of the best sites within the Treiso commune: Giacosa cru, giving powerful and structured wines, and Bricco di Treiso and Giacone crus, giving more elegant and balanced wines.

La Ganghija Barbaresco has an aging potential of 20-30 years.

TASTING NOTE

Intense ruby red color.

Complex nose offering notes of wild berries, black cherry and licorice combined with light spices and vanilla acquired during the wood aging.

Typically austere on the palate, but warm and embracing, with extraordinary persistence and freshness in the finish.

FOOD PAIRINGS

Excellent with elaborate first courses, especially with meat sauces, truffles, or porcini mushrooms. Ideal with roasted and braised meat, white meat, game, and aged or strong cheeses.
