CAMIGLIANO

Gualto Brunello di Montalcino Riserva DOCG 2010

TOSCANA

March 2016

“Camigliano’s 2010 Brunello di Montalcino Riserva Gualto is a dark, saturated, and compact wine that shows a very unique interpretation of the Sangiovese grape. Camigliano occupies one of the best microclimates for dark, velvety, and opulent Brunello that does very nicely in a classic vintage like 2010 with a slower overall growth cycle. The plump fruit stands up nicely to the firm tannins and acidity of the mouthfeel. In all, this is a balanced wine with softness and extra richness.”
