The 2012 Blauburgunder (Pinot Noir) Mazzon Riserva is deep, rich and powerful. A virile, masculine expression of Pinot comes through in this dark, imposing wine. There is no shortage of intensity, although personally I would like to see a little more aromatic brilliance and lift. But that is a stylistic preference. The 2012 Riserva is a very pretty wine. It will appeal most to readers who are looking for Alto Adige Pinot with a little bit of heft. Drinking window: 2016-2020
