

Produttori del Barbaresco Barbaresco Riserva Asili 2011

PIEMONTE

Wine & Spirits

December 2016

“Asili feels cloaked at first, opening on low tones of black cherry, tobacco, and morel mushroom. Its dark and savory flavors slowly take on brighter aspects, picking up spicy notes and mouthwatering acidity even as the umami flavors intensify. The vineyard sits in a warm, southwest-facing bowl that concentrates the wine’s dark savor, making it an intriguing partner for roast beef.”

-Stephanie Johnson

94
Points

