PIEMONTE

Wine & Spirits

December 2016

“Scents of roses, cherries and mint give this wine a lifted feeling that follows through with flavors of fleshy red berries and buoyant acidity. The Paje cru enjoys cooling breezes from the Tanaro river, keeping the fruit fresh and contributing to this wine’s brisk acidity and aromatic elegance. Its firm texture and bright flavors hold as it gains notes of black tea and fennel, lending depth as the wine coasts to a long and lively finish.”
