LA PODERINA Brunello di Montalcino DOCG 2011

TOSCANA

Online May 1, 2016

“Oak, coconut, toast, espresso, menthol, and a whiff of cellar floor are some of the aromas you’ll find in this robust red. The big, warm palate offers raisin, date, licorice, and roasted coffee bean. Teeth-coating tannins leave an astringent finish while the heat of evident alcohol throws it off-balance. While it’s tightly tannic, there’s not much fruit richness, making this more suited for mid-term drinking.”
