

TERREDORA DI PAOLO Aglianico 2013

CAMPANIA

vinous

November 2016

“Bright dark red. Subdued aromas and flavors of zingy red berries and botanical herbs. Slightly one-dimensional, displaying rising tannins that coat the mouth dry on the medium-long back end. Still, there’s lovely freshness and good balance here; I think this will prove a very good food wine, so try it with tomato-sauce-based pizzas and pasta dishes.”
