

TERREDORA DI PAOLO Pago dei Fusi Taurasi DOCG 2008

CAMPANIA

Wine & Spirits

June 2015

“A harmonious and elegant red, this has the silkiness and fragrant anise-like fruit that has established aglianico as the Barolo of the south. Here, the volcanic soil lends the wine a profound depth, layering the brightness of that fruit with savory notes of mushrooms and dark tones of the earth. Paolo Mastroberardino makes this from 25 year old vines; the length of flavor and finesse suggest it has a long life ahead, though its greatness is already apparent, especially if decanted to serve with braised game.”
